St. Celine

We have very few details about the life of this saint who is best known as the mother of St. Remigius, Bishop of Rheims at the time of the conversion of the people of Gaul under Clovis. St. Celine miraculously gave birth to St. Remigius when she was already at an advanced age. Immediately after giving birth, about 438, she also gave sight to the hermit Montanus who had three times foretold the birth of the saintly Bishop.

After a holy life filled with good works and assiduous prayer, this saintly woman attained the rewards of heaven about the year 458. She was buried near Lyons, probably at Cerny, where she lived. Unfortunately her relics were destroyed during the French Revolution.

Prayer: God, You inspired St. Celine to strive for perfect charity and so attain Your Kingdom at the end of her pilgrimage on earth. Strengthen us through her intercession that we may advance rejoicing in the way of love. Amen.

HOLY HOUR

Tuesday, Oct. 23, 6:00pm, St. Alphonsus Church

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The weekend of October 20-21 our diocesan family joins Catholics across the globe in celebrating World Mission Sunday. We join our sisters and brothers around the world who will gather at the Lord's Table to celebrate our common vocation as missionaries.

In his message for this year's celebration, Pope Francis tells us that "life is a mission" and he reminds us that "each one of us is called to reflect on this fact: I am a mission on this earth; that is the reason why I am here in this world." (Evangelii Gaudium, 273)

I invite all of us to see World Mission Sunday as a special moment to live out the mission we share as God's children, the mission to bring the Gospel to the whole world. I encourage you to be a "voice for mission" through your prayers and through the help that you are able to offer in support of the priests, deacons, consecrated religious and lay pastoral leaders who work tirelessly, proclaiming the Gospel, building the Church, and serving the poor in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe.

The prayers and material aid generously given to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on World Mission Sunday, the Pope tells us, continue to support the "preaching of the Gospel to every nation," thus "contributing to the human and cultural growth of all those who thirst for knowledge of the truth."

"Mission revitalizes faith," St. Pope John Paul II wrote in Redemptoris Missio (#2). May your commitment to the Lord's continuing mission renew your faith and be a blessing in your life. God bless you for responding generously to today's special appeal for the missions.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley

SECOND COLLECTION

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY! On this day, Pope Francis calls us to be voices of mission and to speak up through our prayers and sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the Missions. In places where people face uncertainty and violence and where peoples' livelihoods are threatened by climate change and where clergy face martyrdom. Raise your voice today by supporting priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. May you and your faith remain open to the Mission that Christ entrusts in us.
